

Presidential Search website and prospectus now available

We are writing to share an update on the work of the Presidential Search Committee as well as the ways you can continue to assist in the search for Our Lady of the Lake University's next president.

We would like to thank all of you who participated in conversations with our consultants, Julie Tea and Lindsay Allison of Storbeck Search, recently. Your insights provided the basis for the creation of the search prospectus, a valuable tool that will be used to solicit nominations and recruit candidates nationally. We invite you to view the finalized copy which is available on the University's Presidential Search website and on Storbeck Search's website.

As you read the search prospectus, please pay particular attention to the attributes most highly desired in our new president. We urge you to share this document among your networks, as well as to suggest people you know who could serve effectively in this important position, or those you think might know of potential candidates. Please forward their names to Julie Tea and Lindsay Allison at OLLUPresident@storbecksearch.com. Our search committee is well aware that the success of our search depends on the involvement of all members of OLLU's community. Please rest assured that names and information will be treated with full confidentiality.

Over the next several weeks, we will generate a broad, diverse and national candidate pool through nominations received from you and others, inquiries at other colleges and universities similar to OLLU in scope and mission, advertising in The Chronicle of Higher Education and Inside Higher Ed and on a number of other relevant websites, and the work of our search firm. In November, the search committee will begin to narrow the candidate pool.

The search is off to a good start. We will write to you again as we enter subsequent stages of the process. At any time during the search, please feel free to contact us at PresidentialSearch@ollusa.edu with questions. We would welcome hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Steve O'Donnell and Rosalinda Garcia
Presidential Search Committee Co-Chairs
