

ALAMO COLLEGES TRANSFER EQUIVALENCY MANUAL

This document lists the courses offered at Alamo Colleges and indicates whether the course is transferable to Our Lady of the Lake University.
If the course is transferable, information on how the course may be used in an OLLU degree plan is listed.
Note: This is to be used as a guide only. A Letter of Transferability must be submitted to the Registrar's office to ensure the course you wish to take will fulfill within your degree plan.
Information contained:
DISC -- course discipline
CRS# -- course number
COURSE TITLE -- title of course
TRANSFERS -- indicates whether the course is transferable
EQUIV -- If a course at OLLU is equivalent to the Alamo College course

* The following guidelines shall be used when applying transferred programming courses to CISS undergraduate degrees:

If the student has:	Transfer as:	Comments
a programming logic and design course and a beginning programming course	CISS 1315 and CISS 2310	Satisfies core programming requirements
only a programming logic and design course	CISS 1315	Still needs a programming language only one beginning programming class in a language other than Visual Basic	CISS 1315	Logic skills can be verified in CISS 2310 and student gets introduction to an additional language.
only one beginning programming course in Visual Basic	CISS 2310	Student would still take CISS 1315 to prove they know logic to our satisfaction.
two or more programming courses with any language	CISS 1315 and CISS 2310	With two or more courses, student has demonstrated sufficient programming proficiency.
